Benefit Show For Unemployed At the Lomita

LOMITA.—Through the co-operation of Manager J. D. Baker, a benefit performance on behalf of the unemployed will be given tomorrow night at the Lomita Theatre.

The program will include a feature, cartoon and comedy and two serials, and the admission price will be 25 cents. All the proceeds over the running expenses will be turned over to this worthy cause and the sponsors of the affair hope that the people of the community will seize this opportunity to "do as they would be done by."

Many families in Lomita are in distress due to unemployment, and the benefit show will bring in a sum of money that can be used to good advantage in relieving some of the hardships. Milk for little children, clothes and shoes for those in school, medicine and care for the ailing, can be provided out of these funds if all who can do so will patronize this performance. "Charity begins at home," said Manager Baker, "but it ought to get out once in a while, and this is a good time to display interest in the welfare of our neighbors. The Lomita Theatre is always ready to co-operate in any worthy project for the benefit of the community."

Friday night only is the date, at the Lomita Theatre, where the programs are always good.

Two Weeks Delay In Kolek Sentence

Delay of another two weeks in the sentencing of Victor Kolek, who pleaded guilty to one of two counts placed against him as the result of the shooting of Joseph Wojcik, a sailor, was necessitated when he appeared for sentence this week. Kolek applied for probation when he pleaded guilty, and his probation report is not yet ready. October 4 is the date he is to be sentenced now.

HOGS TRAVEL PORTERVILLE, Calif. (U.P.)

Poland China hogs raised in this region have earned the title of "traveling swine." Twenty of these purebred hogs were to be exhibited at the California state fair, the Los Angeles county fair and the Tulare county fair during the present month.

LOOK WHAT GARY'S GOT

The old-lace-and-lavender romance, the quaintly gay costumes, and the glamorous atmosphere of the early 1900's are brought to the screen in Paramount's "One Sunday Afternoon," showing Tuesday and Wednesday next week at the Torrance Theatre. Gary Cooper is next, with Frances Fuller (left), and Fay Wray.

To Stage Big Battle Dance

Something new and different in the way of entertainment is offered the public tomorrow (Friday) evening by the San Pedro Post No. 65, American Legion Bugle and Drum Corps, in the presentation of a Big Battle Endurance Dance, to be given at the American Legion hall in San Pedro, corner of 10th and Meyer streets. The R. S. Amusement Company is co-operating with the Legion in staging the unusual affair.

The entire evening will be given over to interesting contests, in which participation is optional. Even the two orchestras to be provided for the occasion, will battle for musical honors and the dance contestants will decide the winner. Additional entertainment will include the impersonations of noted film stars and crooning by popular singers and song writers.

As the evening will be crowded with entertainment, the program will begin promptly at 8 o'clock and will probably last long into the night. Cash prizes will be distributed among the winners in this unique "battle," and everyone in this district is invited to attend and pick their winners in the various contests. Tickets may be reserved at Earl's Cafe, 1635 Cabrillo avenue, Torrance, selling at 55 cents per person.

R. C. Conference to Be Held Tues. At Santa Monica

Representatives of the numerous Red Cross branches in Los Angeles county will attend a regional conference to be held in Santa Monica, Tuesday, September 26, when various problems of the work will be discussed. Sessions will be held at the First Presbyterian church, at the corner of Second avenue and Arizona street.

Registration of authorized representatives will begin at 9:30 o'clock. The morning session opens at 10 o'clock with Dr. J. S. Kelsey, Jr., of the Santa Monica-Ocean Park chapter presiding.

The program for the morning will include "A Year of Red Cross Service," by Mrs. Eather Chadborn, field representative; "Red Cross in the New Deal" by A. L. Schaffer, manager, Pacific Branch; "Service to the Community Through Home Hygiene," "Problems of Roll Call and How Our Chapter Solved Them; New Channels of Red Cross Membership" by Douglas H. Moore, director of public information and roll call, Pacific Branch; Charles Anderson, 77-year-old prospector found gold. For years he searched over mountains of Idaho in quest of the yellow metal. His body was discovered over a vein of high test gold.

Poultrymen to Meet to Form Organization

Members of the Poultrymen's Co-operative Association of Southern California in southwest Los Angeles county will hold a special meeting to hear reports on important matters and form a local organization.

At the request of PCA members of the Bellflower section, a special meeting is being called for Thursday evening, September 28, at 8:00 o'clock, at the Social hall, 446 East Artesia avenue, near Clark street, in Bellflower.

H. W. Ameinig, PCA manager, will present a report on the organization and internal operations of PCA, and will discuss progress being made in developing codes to benefit the poultry industry.

A question box discussion on "Fall Management Problems" will be conducted by Dr. R. H. Schofield of the Los Angeles county livestock department, and M. W. Buster, PCA secretary.

Following the program members will consider the formation of a local organization to hold regular meetings to discuss their acquisition affairs and industry problems.

All PCA members in the territory adjacent to Artesia, Bell, Bellflower, Compton, Downey, Gardena, Inglewood, Montebello, Torrance, Norwalk, Redondo Beach, Whittier, etc., are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

"Sailor Be Good" Roaring Comedy

A roaring, rollicking, rib-tickling comedy of gobs, girls and fighters is unfolded on the screen of the Lomita Theatre in a laugh-packed salty tale, Friday and Saturday, September 22-23, "Sailor Be Good." A splendid comedy cast, headed by Jack Oakie, Vivienne Osborne and George E. Stone.

Oakie has never been seen in more laughable form than as Joney, smartalec wise-cracking sailor with a roving eye for women, and a penchant for fights. Miss Osborne proves her versatility as Red, waterfront girl friend of sailors and Joney in particular. She is equally appealing here as in her previous dramatic and musical revue roles.

Gertrude Michael makes an elegant Kay Whitney. George E. Stone is above par in his joyous characterization of the fight manager, Murphy possessed of a Hebrew accent. Max Hoffman, Jr., handles his important role, as Hartigan, in splendid fashion. Others in the cast enact their roles sincerely.

Lecture On World Problems Offered

Palos Verdes Community Arts Association announces a lecture on "Pressing World Problems," by Mr. E. Guy Talbot, regional secretary, national council for the prevention of war, on Thursday evening, September 28, at 8:15 o'clock, at the Palos Verdes art gallery, Palos Verdes Estates.

This excellent opportunity to hear the issues of today frankly discussed, is open to the public without charge.

INDIAN HONOR DUE

WASHINGTON SOLO
NESPELEM, Wash. (U.P.)—Senator C. C. Dill, who is Washington's senior senator and thus the state's "big white chief," will be made a chief in fact next time he visits Nespelem. This town, closest to the Coulee Dam site, which Dill was influential in obtaining, plans to exalt him with chief Willie Andrews as master of ceremonies.

—at Narbonne High School

The customary semi-annual reception given by the Senior Girls Athletic Association at Narbonne, under the direction of Miss Mason, will be held Thursday afternoon, September 21, in the gymnasium.

The reception is for the purpose of acquainting the new girls with the other Gauchettes. All girls and women teachers are extended an invitation to be present.

Mildred Robertson, G. A. A. president, and Miss Griffin will welcome the new girls, who are to be guests of honor. There will be a short program, and afterwards dancing will be enjoyed and refreshments served.

Committee chairmen have been appointed as follows: Melba Shafer, in charge of the games; Harriet Fink, decorations; Geneva Straub, program, and Joyce Bunge, refreshments.

Officers of the G. A. A. this term are Mildred Robertson, president; Melba Shafer, vice-president; Geneva Straub, point secretary, and Joyce Bunge, treasurer. Dorothy Key is the new president of the Junior G. A. A. Other officers are: Rosa Hobbs, vice president; Betsy Ann Hunt, secretary; Lois Springman, treasurer; Florence Martinson, and Elsie Clayton, song leaders; Erna Shaffer and Bernice Kirby, yell leaders.

The student store is being managed by two senior A boys, Robert Stock and Franklin Smalley, both of whom have worked in the store other semesters. One more clerk will be appointed later by Miss Mason, the teacher in charge.

Prospects look bright for the B and C football squads since this year has seen a bigger turnout for positions than ever before. The lightweight and midgets are being coached by Bill Shepherd, former all-Marine quarterback.

Candidates for backfield berths are Williams Dunstan, Swao Hira, Norman Robinson, Donald Hart, Gene Tawa, and Hideo Takayanagi. Those who look like promising material for line positions are Graham Ross, Lloyd Powell, Frank Likens, John Higgs, Forest Adcock, Lloyd Jones and La Verne West.

Robert Stock, a senior A, was elected editor of the Green and Gold and Dick Bylin, another senior A, was elected assistant editor at a meeting of the journalism class, September 12. Both boys were reporters on the paper last year and members of the yearbook staff.

Other staff members are Carl Starkey, who will act as business manager; Antonia Tarico, circulation manager; Richard Engle, humor editor; and Walter Milburn, club editor. The sports will be handled by Dick Bylin, assisted by Carl Starkey and Dick Eubank.

All of the staff had previous experience as reporters last term. The 19 new members in the journalism class have been divided into two groups. One group will report for the Green and Gold temporarily. The others will furnish publicity for the Torrance Herald and other newspapers in the bay district.

Because of the absence of some of the regular teachers, several substitutes are taking their places temporarily. Mrs. Jordan is substituting for Miss Chadwick, the hygiene instructor, who has been visiting her sister in Mexico and was detained because of an airplane accident, in which no one was injured, however.

Miss Quinn has been taking Miss Holloway's place. The public speaking teacher has been on a tour of the world but is expected to return Monday.

Miss Mallin is substituting in the art department for Mrs. Wright, who will probably return in October. Miss Burwash, who formerly taught music at Narbonne, has returned and is assisting Miss Wylie in the library.

A new permanent teacher, Mr. Rowland, has been added to the commercial department.

Narbonne's enrollment shows an increase over that of last year. At the end of the first week, 761 students had enrolled of which 399 were boys and 362 girls. Last year at this time there were only 721 enrolled. The B-7s with 103 students form the largest class.

Compton Dog Races Halted Until After Close of Co. Fair

Racing at the Compton dog track has been halted temporarily, according to announcement by the officials of that course late last week. The track will be closed while the Los Angeles county fair is going on, and will probably then be reopened.

Troubles with the district attorney's office over the legality of the sale of "options" has further complicated matters. Prior to the closing, 45 deputies from the sheriff's office were sent to the track with orders to make arrests if any sales of options were made, but the management cancelled the selling privilege for the evening and there were no arrests.

According to report the management is now in the hands of Marion Newman, appointed receiver by Federal Judge Harry Holzer to conserve the assets of the club. The appointment was made on the petition of Frank E. Jefferson, a creditor.

Chase Chill with a Modern Gas Floor Furnace

There is no waiting for warmth with a modern gas floor furnace. A turn of a key -- or a touch of a button on the wall -- and warm, fresh air begins to circulate into every corner. If you prefer, control may be by thermostat, so that a constant room temperature is maintained automatically.

Installation is easy in practically any home -- no basement required. First cost and operation are economical.

Look for the Blue Star Seal of the American Gas Association Testing Laboratory.
